

Girls
Norfolk Suits,
Smart mixtures, shepherd checks and navy blue serge.
Just the proper thing for the miss from 14 to 18 years. On sale to-day; $20.00 values—Special, $13.75
Kaufmann & Co.

Social and Personal

It does society good, even amid the seriousness of Holy Week to have an April fool smile with which to begin Monday morning. Why Monday morning is the blue day of the week, why everybody should be cross around the breakfast table, and just why nothing seems to be in a proper state of adjustment, is a thing that the wisest man and woman has not yet found out a reason for.

But the festival of fools is also the festival of fun, so that was why yesterday morning began with a laugh, with a cheerfulness in tone that is seldom heard, with a little sly fun and mischief before the 11 o'clock service came. This is, however, first of all, church-going week in Richmond. Miss Society is sweet and serious as a rule, and when Miss Society puts on demure lips, the rest of humanity becomes demure also. Her seriousness becomes her. It will make the brightness of

DEMAND
Dunlop
Flour
The Flour That Gives Universal
Satisfaction.

PATRICIAN
Shoe

Here is a Receipt

That you can recommend to your dearest friend, and feel that it will cement the tie of friendship stronger than ever.

Wear Patrician Shoes

It is the thoroughness of construction that gives a shoe or garment real distinction and character. Patrician is the perfection in shoe construction. The superlative of merit in design, in making and in finishing, all express those masterly touches which have elevated Patrician far above all other shoe-making.

We carry a complete stock of stylish, comfortable and serviceable footwear for women.

$3.00 $3.50 $4.00

Seymour Sytle

11 W. Broad

"Dead Sure," the best remedy in the world for bed bugs, etc., 19c at

Tragle's

J. B. Mosby & Co.

Women's $25.00 Spring Suits, $16.50.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS
THE FREED CO.
(311 EAST BROAD STREET)

Bien and Harding Inc.
Women's and Misses' Outer Garments
at 2525 1/2

Noelheimer's

N. W. Corner Third and Broad.
Showing Spring Styles
Colonial Pumps.

her Easter development all the more striking by contrast, until the "sun dances" on April 7. She is still a symphony in gray and pink, moving decorously beside her, accommodating here, as always, its pace to that which the maid sets.

At Woman's Club.
Spring flowers brought a touch of April sunshine into the parlors of the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon, when Professor J. C. Metcalf, of Richmond College, held the attention of his hearers by a talk on the great Russian master of literature, Tolstoy.

As a profound student of Tolstoy from every point of view, from his immense powers as a man of letters, from the influence which his work exerts as an educator, a reformer and a humanitarian, Dr. Metcalf delivered a lecture which was deeply interesting and thoroughly entertaining. Mrs. William A. Crenshaw was chairman of the afternoon, and was assisted in doing the honors by Mrs. Conway Sands, Mrs.
Bingham, Misses Agnes Randolph Ingham Warwick and Florence Peple.

Presiding at the dainty tea table were Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. William P. de Saussure and Mrs. Morris Warren, assisted by Misses Williams.

The coffee table was presided over by Mrs. J. R. V. Daniel, Mrs. Lucien Curry, Mrs. J. C. Robertson and Mrs. S.
O. Price.

Prominent Wedding.
Of interest to many Richmond friends will be the wedding to-morrow of Miss Bessie Dyer Crosby, of Norfolk, to Louis Lay Davis, of New Haven, Connecticut. The wedding will take place at 8 o'clock, in Epworth Methodist church, of Norfolk, the Rev. T. A.
Smoot officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jefferson Crosby, of Norfolk, and the marriage will be a double event of interest, and be attended by a large party of the groom's friends and relatives from Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will spend their honeymoon at Atlantic City and Bermuda Islands, and will afterwards have their home at New Haven, Connecticut.

Miss Fisher's Engagement.
Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Russell Jones, of West Grace Street, have issued invitations for the marriage of their cousin, Miss Elizabeth Hingham Fisher, to Frederick Taylor Sherman, Jr., of New York, the ceremony, which will take place Tuesday, April 9, at 11 A. M. in Monumental Episcopal Church.

Will be followed by a reception in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jones. The bride-to-be is the daughter of the late Edward Fisher, of this city, and the granddaughter of the late George Fisher, for many years pastor of the church associated with the history of Richmond and of Monumental Church. During the last few years, Miss Fisher has spent much of her time in New York and in travel abroad, but she has many friends who will be interested in the notice of her approaching wedding.

Exhibit at Art School.
Beginning with to-day, there will be an unusually fine display of work at the Art School exhibition. William F. Silva, of Savannah and Washington, will place on view a collection of his paintings, and the regular Tuesday afternoon lecture will be omitted in honor of visitors desiring to see the exhibit. Mr. Silva's native place is Savannah. His art education was conducted in Paris, but he has been in America since 1907. Miss Lucy McLean will also have as an attractive part of the exhibition, some unusually fine examples of Eighteenth Century decorative furniture.

Women's Meetings.
This will be a busy day for women belonging to various organizations in Richmond. The Branch B. Allen Auxiliary will convene this morning at 11 o'clock in Murphy's Hotel Annex.

This afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society, the board of managers of the Association, for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will hold a meeting.

To-morrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the literature class of the Woman's Club will meet with Miss Augusta Daniel to discuss Robert Browning's poem, "The Rider and the Boat."

The Junior Auxiliary, Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the auditorium of the John Marshall High School.

The Rebekah Peterkin Circle of the King's Daughters will meet in the home of Mrs. Hiram T. Gates, 1107 West Franklin Street, this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

The Last of the Tea Series.
The last of the Lenten teas given by the Girls' Club, at Ginter Park, will be held this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Hugh Russell, 305 Seminary Avenue. Assisting Mrs. Russell, who is the hostess for the afternoon, will be Mrs. Lawton Crutchfield, Mrs. Howard Sutton, Mrs. Blythe Moore, Mrs. Irene Smith and Miss Nell Sutton. These teas have been of much interest to society and have been well attended.

Smith-Kirkpatrick.
The marriage of John Mundell Smith, a young business man of Richmond, to Mrs. S. J. Kirkpatrick, of Danville, widely and popularly known in her profession as a nurse, was quietly celebrated in Richmond on the afternoon of March 31, only immediate friends of the bride couple being present. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will have their future home at 2615 West Main Street.

Reception to Mrs. Wood.
One of the prettiest and at the same time most delightful social events of recent date was a reception given by one of the classes of the Epworth Baptist Church, in honor of their teacher, Mrs. Charles B. Wood. The reception was held at "Ardmore," the beautiful home of Mrs. and Mr. W.
Frank Sheeh, their daughter, Rosalie, acting as hostess. Only the members of the class were present, sweet, car-ent, bright-faced girls, each eager to do homage to her beloved teacher. A pleasant hour was spent in discussion the work which lies so close to each heart.

Funeral was served from a silver bowl. Surrounding the bowl was a centrepiece of trailing vines. As a conclusion to the delightful afternoon, the hostess presented to Mrs.
Wood, as a gift of love from her class, a handsome cut-glass pitcher on a silver salver surrounded by the cards of her pupils. The presentation was made in a beautiful manner, and was received by Mrs. Wood in the spirit with which it was given. She, in a low, sweet voice, words expressing her appreciation of their love and assuring them of her affection and interest in each pupil. Those present were the guests of honor, Mrs. W.
B. Wood; Mrs. W. P. Sheeh, Mrs. Edwin Perkins, Mrs. Wirt L. Todd, Miss Rosalie Sheeh, Mrs. Mary S. Ross, Norvell Lucille Sheeh, Mrs. Inn,
Lily Sheeh, Helen Thomas, Mrs. A.
Snead, Lizzie Thomas, and Lottie Snead. Miss Mary Sney presided at the punch bowl and Misses Rosa Norvell and Helen Thomas were the guests.

To Meet This Morning.
A meeting of Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held at 11 o'clock this morning in Lee Camp Hall. The president of the chapter requests that the members blank be brought in at this meeting.
Talk on Japan.

Dr. Eager will give an illustrated talk on Japan next Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, in Grace Street Baptist church. The stereoscopic views for the lecture are fine, and the subject will be treated in a manner cal-

ROYAL BAKING-POWDER

Absolutely Pure

MAKES HOME BAKING EASY

Light Biscuit
Delicious Cake
Dainty Pastries
Fine Puddings
Flaky Crusts

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar culated to arouse interest in foreign missions. Dr. Eager's travels in the Orient and his eloquent and forceful style of description promise unusual pleasure to his hearers.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Lily V. Rhodes, of Carterville, Va., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Philip H. Mason, at 220-A South Third Street, for the past two weeks.

Miss Carrie Leftwich, of Henry Clay Inn, Ashland, was the guest of Richmond friends last week. Miss Dorothy Leftwich returned with her to the Inn, where already people from this city are beginning to congregate for the spring and summer.

Miss Virginia Gordon and Miss Eliza-Whitford, of Norfolk, are guests of Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss, in Richmond.

Miss Eleanor Montgomery spent the week-end with relatives in Hanover county.

Mrs. Thomas S. Atkins and her daughter, Mrs. H. McG. Goodridge, of Norfolk, have returned from a visit to John Pryor Atkins, formerly of Richmond, but for some years a resident of Detroit. Mr. Atkins's health has been bad for some months.

Mrs. David Chalmers and Miss Chambers, of New York, are guests in Richmond of Mrs. Clifford Smith and Mrs. Henry W. Rountree, and will remain until after the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fowler have given up their apartment in "The Hanover" and have moved to Ginter Park.
Mrs. John L. Eubank, who has been spending the winter at Rock Hill, S.
C., is expected to arrive in Richmond shortly on her way to Warm Springs, Va.

Miss Lucy Lloyd, who has been in Florida for several months, is spending some days with Mrs. Herbert P.
Gray and Mrs. Basil Cole, at 401 East Franklin Street, before going to Dublin, Va., where she will be during the summer months.

Adjutant-General and Mrs. W. W.
Sale have opened their country place near Lakeside, after having spent the winter months in Richmond, at the Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Plummer have taken the apartment at the Hanover just vacated by Adjutant-General and Mrs.
Sale.

Many Richmond friends are interested in the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Harper Vass, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roslin Cummings Vass, of Culpeper, to Dr. Lawrence Sanford Richards, which will be celebrated on Wednesday evening, April 16, in St.
Stephen's Church, Culpeper. Dr. Richards is well known in Richmond and is very popular.

Destroyed by Fire.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Emporia, Va., April 1.—The two-story building owned by E. W. Wyatt, a colored man of North Emporia, was consumed by fire at an early hour this morning. The loss of the building and contents will approximate $2,000, and insurance amounted to $2,000.

HEAD SEVERED FROM BODY.
Remains of Young Man Found Lying Headless, Killed by Train.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fayetteville, N. C., April 1.—The headless body of a young man, with the neck and head lying on the ground, was discovered near the Atlantic Coast Line Railway tracks at Hayne, Sumpter county, early this morning by two travelers, E. M. Bullard and Frances Parker, who were riding in a vehicle towards this place.

The victim was apparently about twenty years old, clean shaven, with sandy hair.

Messrs. Bullard and Parker reported the matter by telephone to the Sampson Lumber Company, where it was said that the description answered that of a young man employed at that plant, near Hayne.

It is supposed, in the absence of any positive information, that the ill-fated young man was on his way to work by a westbound freight train, which passed that point about 1 o'clock this morning.

The body is being guarded by a section force, pending the arrival of the coroner of Sampson county.

KILLED BY EXPLOSION.
A. H. McDaniel Meets Death While Handling Dynamite.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Orange, Va., April 1.—A. H. Mc-Daniel, manager of H. H. Lyne's farm, "Willow Grove," situated about two miles north of Orange, was the victim of a fatal accident this afternoon, when he was blown to pieces by the explosion of dynamite. He was using the explosive to make openings for fruit trees when the tragedy occurred. He was about forty years old, and leaves a wife and five children.

Glasses That Fit?
The wrong glasses are sometimes worse than none. We guarantee to fit you in every respect.

Smith & Webster
Opticians, 612 E. Main Street.

Tyler's
FIRST AND BROAD STS.
RICHMOND, VA.

FOR CLOTHES
HAMMOND
Headquarters for Wedding Gowns

Kramet's
GENTLY SWEEP THE SYSTEM.
The best pharmaceutical chemists have approved Kramet's formula. Physicians prescribe and recommend them. At drugstores, 10-25-50 cents.

Dreyfus & Co.
201 E. Broad Important displays of new Spring Suits, Dresses and Millinery.

It's Easy to Peel Off All Your Freckles
(From American Home.)

The contrast between the freckles and the clear skin usually is so great that no bleach can be more than partially successful in obliterating the disfigurements. Ordinary mercurized wax is far better; it literally peels off the freckles, leaving an ounce of it at the nearest drug store and to-night spread on enough to completely cover your face; remove in the morning with warm water. Repeat daily until every freckle has disappeared.

Rough, blotchy, pimpled skin, also common at this season, may be entirely gotten rid of by this same method, without discomfort or inconvenience. The effort is decidedly worth while, the new complexion obtained being so clear, smooth and youthful.
If bothered with wrinkles, after washing off the mercurized wax, bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered sassafras in a half pint of witch hazel.

DE COURCY SERVED HIS ARMY MANY YEARS

Scion of Historic Irish Family Dies in New York Hotel.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENAY, LEUTENANT-COLONEL, FERDINAND DE LA ROCHE DE COURCY, who died last week in New York, at the Park Avenue Hotel, as a veteran of the Civil War and of the twenty-years of arduous campaigning against the Indians which followed had joined the United States army as a private in 1857, after having come from Erin as a mere boy, and was believed to only secure this company of the historic Irish family of De Courcy, the present head of which is the thirty-year-old Baron de Courcy, in Ireland, the three peersages dating from the beginning of the twelfth century, they were hereditarily bestowed by Henry III, being subsequently confirmed by patent, in 1357.

Even still more ancient than the Kingsale peerages, the rank of baron conferred upon the De Courcy family as a hereditary prerogative by King John, of remaining covered in the presence of the sovereign. This right, which the late Colonel de Courcy, U.
S. A., also enjoyed, was conferred under the following peculiar circumstances: The Sir John de Courcy, of that day, who seems to have been of sort of Hercules, had, in spite of his services in conquering Ulster, for John's father, Henry II, been imprisoned in the Tower of London, and his estates confiscated, the victim of some ignominious intrigue at court.

John de Courcy had been languishing in the Tower dungeon for some time when King Philip Augustus of France made a sort of sporting offer to King John, to settle the dispute which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, con-
cerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, concerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

King John, to settle the dispute
which had arisen between them, con-
cerning the dukedom of Normandy,
by single combat, each monarch to
provide his own champion.

Engagement Rings

Appropriate for approaching weddings—is the consideration of the Engagement Ring.

There is no store in Richmond better suited to serve you.

Schwarzschild Bros.
Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

MERCHANT VICTIM OF BRUTAL ATTACK

Robbed of Big Sum and Left in Unconscious Condition—Blood-hounds on Scene.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bowling Green, Va., April 1.—J. L.
Farmer, a merchant, who lives alone a short distance from this place, was found in his store this morning with his jaw cut open from his mouth to his ear, his ear cut off, and his head mailed and cut in a dozen places. His condition is very serious, but not necessarily fatal. After the attack, which it is supposed was made by two men, Mr. Farmer was robbed of several hundred dollars.

Shortly after finding the unconscious man in his store this morning Sheriff Gill was notified and he telephoned for bloodhounds. This afternoon two animals from the State Penitentiary Farm, in charge of their keeper, a convict, and Detective Kennedy, of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, reached here.

Immediately the dogs were put on the trail, which they followed for about one mile, when the scent was lost. Then they were brought back to the scene of the crime shortly after dark and they took up another trail, with what result was not known at a late hour to-night.

Mr. Farmer's condition to-night is very serious, and the people of this community have been greatly stirred by the cowardly attack.